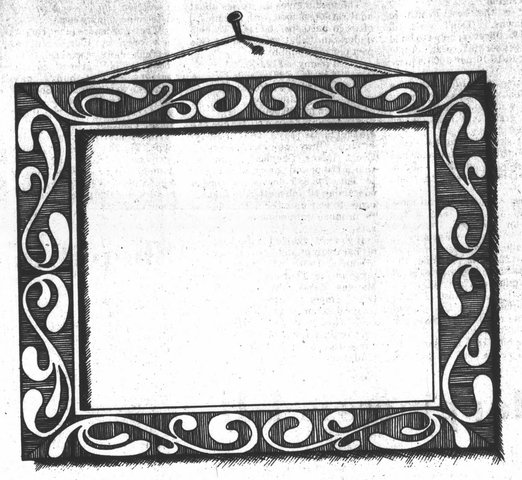
SHOP APPOMATTOX COUNTY!

Have You Ever Known A Big City Merchant To Help In Our Local Boy Scout Drive???



. . . or in a Cancer drive . . . or any other volunteer effort that helped our home town? Not likely.

Big city stores contribute to THEIR community . . . and they are pleased when YOU contribute to THEIR community by shopping in THEIR stores.

Certainly you know that part of your purchases in the big city go to pay for THEIR streets, parks, recreation areas, city administration, fire and police protection, etc.

Just another good reason to shop FIRST in our town stores . . . where part of each dollar you spend comes BACK TO YOU in the form of local services that help YOU and your family.

12th Annual Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival

Volume 12 - Number 1 | Appomattox, Virginia | October 13-14, 1984

Betty Diener is Grand Marshal

Dr. Betty J. Diener

Dr. Betty J. Diener, Secretary of Commerce and Resources, Commonwealth of Virginia, will be Grand Marshal for the annual Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival Parade on Saturday, Oct. 13. The festival is planned for Saturday, Oct. 13 and Sunday, Oct. 14.

As Secretary of Commerce and Resources, Dr. Diener is a member of the Governor's Cabinet and is responsible for policy development and direction for 22 State agencies, 52 citizen boards and commissions, and a total budget of $941 million.

Her areas of responsibility include industrial development, environmental management, labor, employment services, housing and community development, historic attractions, travel and tourism, recreation, agriculture, and marine, forest, and mining resources.

Before becoming Secretary of Commerce and Resources, Dr. Diener was Dean of the School of Business Administration at Old Dominion University in Norfolk from 1979-1982.

She was selected as one of Glamour magazine's outstanding career women in 1979. Then in 1984, Glamour magazine selected her as one of ten outstanding working women of the last decade.

Dr. Diener received an MBA (1964) and a DBA (1974) from Harvard Business School, and was one of the first women to receive either degress from that school. Prior to returning from Harvard for her DBA, she worked in account management at Young and Rubicam advertising agency and in product management and new product development in the Consumer Products Division of American Cyanamid.

She has also been a member of the Board of Directors of Revco Drug Stores and has been active as a consultant to companies in the toiletry, appliance, electronics, retailing, and construction industries.

Appomattox is pleased to have Dr. Betty Diener with us this year.

Henry Fulcher is 'Head Conductor'

Henry Fulcher, a native of Buckingham County, is a graduate of Buckingham Central High School. He grew up in this area, and following a course of study at a radio broadcasting school in Washington, he became a member of the staff of WFLO in Farmville in the late 50's where he has been ever since.

Henry's specialty is country music with interest especially in blue grass music. He has been MC of WFLO's early morning country show for approximately 25 years and has been a frequent MC for country music shows in public appearances throughout the area.

Henry is a past president of the Va. Folk & Country Music Association and has received many honors. He is a close friend of Roy Clark and the Clark family, and has been a guest (with the Clark family band) on the TV program Hee Haw and on many other occasions he has been MC for the Clark band in public appearances.

He is a member of Heritage Baptist Church in Farmville and is an officer in that church. He is married to Joyce Wilmoth Fulcher and they have a 4 year old daughter, Kristi.

Henry is vice president of Colonial Broadcasting Co., Inc., of Farmville, the corporation which owns WFLO AM & FM.

Henry Fulcher

Appomattox welcomes Henry to our 12th Annual Festival.
